

Catechetical Themes

The U.S. Catholic Conference of Bishops' General Directory for Catechesis calls for a lifelong approach to faith formation with the parish community at the center.

Generations of Faith provides this by developing an events-centered approach to faith formation, focusing on the events of Church life.

The Generations of Faith approach includes intergenerational programs for all ages and resources for home faith-sharing and learning.

In addition, faith formation classroom sessions are provided for children, teens and adults on one other Sunday per month, called Faith Formation Sundays.

The harvest is plenty,
the laborers are few, come with me into the fields

Co-Workers in the Vineyard

For we are God's
co-workers, you are God's field.

1 Corinthians 3:9

2010-2011

What does a Generations of Faith event look like?

- Enjoy a meal together.
- Share an opening session that includes prayer, song and other activities.
- Move into age-specific or intergenerational learning experiences.
- Reunite for closing prayer and song.

What will I get out of Generations of Faith?

- A greater sense of belonging to the St. Sebastian faith community.
- Spiritual nourishment.
- A better understanding of the Catholic faith.
- Ideas that connect faith to daily life.
- An increased ability to pass on the faith to others.

How do I get involved in Generations of Faith?

Try a session! Pre-registration is preferred, but you can register on site. The registration form is on the parish website:
